Terry Lynn promoted to Senior Vice President, Sales & Supply Chain

CHARLOTTE, NC – General Steel Drum LLC (GSD) and North Coast Container LLC (NCC) announce the promotion of Terry Lynn to the position of Senior Vice President, Sales & Supply Chain. In this new role, Terry is responsible for all commercial activities in the Eastern US.

Terry graduated from University of North Carolina Charlotte and joined GSD in 1997 from Bank of America. He has over 20 years experience in the steel drum industry and has worked in all facets of operations. Most recently, he has been General Manager of GSD and in charge of all commercial and supply chain activities. Terry already has deep relationships with many of our shared customers and we look forward to his expansion of scope with the collective companies

About the Company

Myers Container (“Myers”) and Container Management Services (“CMS”) were acquired in 2007 by the Stavigs, the fourth generation of the family-owned business dating back to 1917. General Steel Drum of Charlotte, North Carolina (2011) and North Coast Container LLC of Cleveland, Ohio (2018) were acquired by the Stavigs and each continues to operate independently under its own name and entity. The Stavig family’s formula for success is building a collection of brands by acquiring successful companies, enabling their current management teams to maintain their operating independence and thrive. Myers and CMS are headquartered in Portland, Oregon and together create a True LifeCycle™ company that can recondition or recycle the products it produces.
